

What is final expense insurance?

Many families face unexpected expenses after the death of a loved one from the cost of a funeral, medical expenses, or possibly credit card bills. Final expense insurance is permanent life insurance coverage designed to help cover these costs when the insured dies, easing the financial burden on loved ones. Preparing financially can help alleviate some of your family's stress in a time when they are grieving.

Coverage with guarantees

As with all types of whole life insurance, your premiums will remain constant and your beneficiaries will be paid the death benefit you selected to help cover the costs of a funeral and other final expenses. As long as you continue to pay your premiums, you are guaranteed your insurance cannot be canceled after the certificate is issued due to age or a change in your health condition. Plus, after your certificate has been in force for a specified time, it builds guaranteed cash value.

Simplified Issue Whole Life (Form Series 1311) and Graded Death Benefit (Form Series 1312)

If you are between 50 and 85 years old, Royal Neighbors has two final expense products to help you start planning. Simplified Issue Whole Life (SIWL) will pay the full face amount upon your death. SIWL offers affordable coverage from $5,000 to $25,000. Graded Death Benefit (GDB) will pay 30% of the face amount if natural death occurs in the first year, 70% in the second year, and 100% thereafter. Getting started is easy

Final expense insurance offers affordable coverage with no physical exam required.² Use the worksheet to the right to help you decide how much insurance protection you need and can afford. You can choose your premium payment, method, and frequency. In addition, you can also decide who will receive your insurance benefits.

We offer an Accelerated Living Benefit³ rider with this coverage. If permanently confined to a nursing home or diagnosed with a terminal condition, a portion of the death benefit can be accessed and used to help fund your care or other needs. Additional fees and interest may apply. (Form Series 1766)
